Employer Complimentary Limited Membership Form

For the employer who loses membership representation in MPI due to a member employee leaving the company and taking their membership with them, they may apply for a trial three-month “limited membership” for another employee of the company to replace the departing MPI member.

There is no fee for this trial three-month “limited membership” and it is transferable one time within the three-month period. Benefits of the three-month limited membership include: weekly e-mail newsletters and a subscription to One+ magazine, local chapter affiliation, and exclusive access to the membership only section of the MPI Web site. Upon renewing the member will continue to receive the full benefits of MPI.
